

MUSIC SUMMER CAMP

Amati

DESCRIPTION

CHAMBER MUSIC

Amati Music School, an essential reference in the world of musical education in Granada for 25 years, invites you to participate and enjoy a musical experience focused on Chamber Music.

This course includes not only the baroque and classical repertoire: Haydn, Mozart, Telemann, Lully etc but also modern music: arrangements of jazz and world music repertoire.

The course is addressed to those strings and woodwind players with a basic-intermediate level, students or amateurs of any age.

MUSICAL THEATER

For those who want to begin an experience in the world of music and drama we offer a Musical theater workshop (singing, dance and drama) whose aim is to put on the stage different scenes of traditional Operetas and modern musicals written or adapted for children. With this in mind we'll work with these groups on basic concepts of language and musical practice and form a body of actors/singers. The students will be accompanied by an orchestra of musicians (teachers/students) during the rehearsals and of course in the final show at the end of the course.

We'd also like to introduce the students in the fascinating world of jazz and awaken their curiosity to other forms and styles of music.

CONCERTS AND MUSICAL THEATER

The course will close with a Concert in "El Molino" and the staging of different scenes of a Musical. Depending on the time and rehearsals we could try and offer some open concerts in the village of Durcal.
